1. Currency Note Press, Nasik, prints and supplies bank notes of the denominations of Rs.10/-, Rs.50/- and Rs.100/- for the Reserve Bank of India.

The provision under Capital is towards purchase of special wagons, machines, etc. and construction of buildings for the machines to be received from the RBI on lease basis.

2. Bank Note Press, Dewas prints bank notes of denominations of Rs.20/-, Rs.50/-, Rs.100/- and Rs.500/-. The Press also manufactures and partly meets the requirement of inks of India Security Press, Currency Note Press and Security Printing Press, besides its own requirement.

The provision under Capital is towards construction of special treasure wagons and construction of buildings for the machines to be received from the RBI on lease basis.

3. Security Paper Mill, Hoshangabad, prints currency and bank note papers and Stamp papers. The Mill was set up in collaboration with M/s. Portal of U.K. and commissioned in June, 1967. The Mill was intended to make the country self-dependent for its requirements of security paper.

The provision under Capital is towards procurement of plant and machinery and construction of quarters, etc.

4. The India Government Mints at Bombay, Calcutta, Hyderabad and NOIDA besides minting Government of India coins, examine and dispose of withdrawn coins and tender expert opinion on counterfeit and doubtful coins. They also manufacture medals for various Government Departments and other Institutions like Universities. The assay departments attached to Bombay and Calcutta Mint assay gold, silver and alloys for coins, medals, badges, etc. The Bombay Mint, mints commemorative coins and manufactures weights, volume and length measures. It also undertakes gold melting, refining and casting work.

The provision is for the four existing Mints. The provision under Capital is towards procurement of plant and machinery and construction of buildings under modernisation.

5-6. This represents provision on account of purchase of metals for coinage, coin blanks, import of coins and purchase of silver.

7. This represents the difference between the face value and metal value of coins withdrawn and destroyed.

8. India Security Press, Nasik, prints postal stationery, postal and non-postal stamps, judicial and non-judicial stamps, cheques, bonds and other security documents such as passports, promissory notes, etc., besides a number of miscellaneous items of security nature required by Central and State Governments and quasi Government organisations. It has also started printing MICR cheques to meet the needs of Reserve Bank of India and Central/State Governments Departments.

The provision under Capital is towards procurement of new machines for replacement of old machines and ancillary civil and electrical works thereto.

9. Security Printing Press, Hyderabad supplements the output of the India Security Press for postal stationery as also of match excise banderols and Central Excise stamps. The Press is also printing non-judicial stamp papers of the denominations of Rs.5/-, Rs.3.50, Rs.2/- and Re.1/-. The Press has also taken up the printing of Rs. 10/- denomination non-judicial stamp papers from the year 1989-90 onwards.

The provision under Capital is towards construction works and procurement of machinery.

10. This includes provision mainly for Central Stamp Depot.
