1. Secretariat Social Service : Provides for secretariat expenditure.

2. Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan: Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan is a Central autonomous body of the Ministry which has Nehru Yuva Kendras in the districts functioning under it. It is one of the largest grass root level organizations in Asia-Pacific region, catering to more than 8 million youth in the age group of 15-35 years. This organization is mainly working for giving extra thrust to the activities of non-student rural youth through programmes such as youth leadership, training, community service programmes, vocational training, sports and recreation, cultural activities, non-formal education, etc.

3. National Service Scheme: The scheme started in 1969-70 is implemented through universities, colleges and other institutions of higher learning. Expenditure on the scheme is shared on 7:5 basis between the Govt. of India and the States except in case of Govt. of J&K and UTs without legislatures where the entire expenditure is met by the Central Govt. The National Service Scheme has two types of programmes, viz. "Regular Activities" and "Special Camping Programmes" undertaken by its volunteers. Under "Regular Activities", students are expected to work as volunteers for a continuous period of two years, rendering community service for a minimum of 120 hours per annum. The activities include improvement of campuses, tree plantation, constructive work in adopted villages and slums, work in welfare institutions, blood donation, adult and non-formal education, health, nutrition, family welfare, AIDS awareness campaign, etc. Under "Special Camping Programme", camp of 10 days' duration is conducted every year in the adopted areas on specific themes like "Youth for afforestation and Tree Plantations", "Youth for Rural Reconstruction", "Youth for Development", "Youth for Mass Literacy", "Youth for Sustainable Development (with focus on Wasteland Development)" and "Watershed Management" in the New Millennium, the NSS theme for Special Camping is "Youth for Healthy Society" which was launched from the year 1999. During the year 2003-04 the theme chosen is "Swacchta" (Cleanliness). The theme for the year 2004-05 would be "Nadiyon Mein Phirse Bahe Jal Dhara, Yehi Hai Sankalp Hamara" (Recharging of Rivers).

4. National Discipline Scheme (NDS): Under the scheme the Central Government meets the expenditure on the pay and allowances of the NDS instructors under the erstwhile National Fitness Corps Scheme and other incidental expenses.

5. National Service Volunteers Scheme: National Service Volunteers Scheme launched in 1977-78, aims at providing opportunities to students, generally speaking those who have completed their first degree, to involve themselves on a voluntary basis in nation building activities for a specific period, on a whole time basis.

6. National Integration Programme: Under this scheme, the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports provides assistance to Voluntary Organisations, educational institutions, NSS and NYKS for organizing National Integration Camps in different parts of the country, for interstate visits, seminars, conferences, research publication, youth festivals, cultural programmes and other activities, all of which aim at combating communalism, regionalism, linguistic chauvinism and other divisive tendencies.

7. Youth Hostels: Youth Hostels are built to promote youth travel. Travelling enables youth to experience the diversity of the country, its natural beauty, as well as savour the glories of the past, a process which promotes national integration. The construction of such hostels has been conceived as a joint venture between the Central and the State Govts. While the Central Govt. bears the cost of construction, the State Govt. provides the developed land free of cost with water, electricity, approach road and staff quarters.

8. Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Youth Development (RGNID): RGNID is an autonomous body for youth development responsible for training, documentation, research and evaluation and extension of all youth related activities in the country.

9. National Reconstruction Corps Scheme (NRC): The National Reconstruction Corps was launched in June, 1999 as a pilot project for 2 years to cover 80 selected districts in the country. So far the Scheme has been implemented in 116 districts. An evaluation of the scheme has been done through the Planning Commission and further continuance of the scheme during the remaining period of 10th Plan is under consideration. The scheme aims at providing an opportunity to youth who have completed their matriculation to participate in the process of nation building. The NRC volunteers will be deployed by Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan on specific projects relating to community and national development. The minimum age of volunteers will be 18 years. The volunteers would get a stipend of Rs.1000/- per month inclusive of Travel Expenses.

10. National Commission for Youth: Pursuant to the announcement made by the Prime Minister, the National Commission for Youth was set up on 15th March, 2002 for a period of six months i.e. upto 15.9.2002. An allocation of Rs. 1.93 crore is made for National Commission for Youth, set up to study the areas of concern for the youth and suggest measures for the implementation of the Plan of Action of the new National Youth Policy. Its tenure has now been extended upto 30th September, 2004.

11. Other Youth Welfare Activities: These include provision for International Exchange of Youth Delegations under cultural exchange programmes, financial assistance to voluntary agencies engaged in youth welfare, National Youth Awards, scheme of promotion of adventure, scouting and guiding, Commonwealth Youth Programme, financial assistance and awards to youth clubs and contributions to United Nation Volunteers Programmes. Two New schemes (i) Scheme for Welfare & Development of Adolescents and (ii) Establishment of National/State Youth Centres are under consideration.

12. The Sports Authority of India (SAI): It was established by the Government of India in the year 1984 with the twin objectives of spotting/nurturing talented children and striving for excellence. SAI is also responsible for maintaining and utilizing stadia, which were constructed during the IX Asian Games at Delhi. In order to adopt an integrated approach towards promotion and development of sports in the country, the SNIPES was merged with SAI.

13. Lakshmi Bai National Institute of Physical Education (LNIFE): This Institute was established at Gwalior in the year 1957 as a National Institute with a view to : (a) providing training for quality leadership in physical education, (b) providing excellent facilities for research in the field of physical education and (c) developing model national physical education institutes.

The Institute is accorded the status of a deemed university and grants will be released to the institute by the Govt. for its various activities.

14. All India Council for Physical Education: With the acceptance of the CABE Committee Report on Integration of Physical Education and Sports, it is proposed to constitute an All India Council of Physical Education as a statutory body. The Council will look after all aspects of physical education in the country and advise the Government of India and through them the State Governments on all matters. All India Council of Physical Education is yet to be set up.

15. Rajiv Gandhi Khel Ratna Award: Rajiv Gandhi Khel Ratna Award was instituted by the Government in 1991-92 for the most spectacular and outstanding performance in the field of sports by a sportsperson/team in a year. Only one award is given under the scheme. The award carries a medal, a scroll of honour and a cash prize of Rs.5 lakh.

16. Special Awards to winners in International Sports Events: The Awards under the Scheme of "Special Awards to Winners in International Sports Events and their coaches" was introduced in the year 1986 primarily to compensate the medal winners of international sports events for the expenses incurred on diet, training, preparations and for the deprivations suffered by them due to their devotion and service to sports. The other objective of the award is to encourage and motivate outstanding sports persons for even higher achievements and to attract the younger generation to take to sports as a career.

17. Scheme of Incentives for Promotion of Sports

Activities: A package Incentive scheme has been devised for providing incentives to outstanding sports persons and also for giving assistance for school level competitions.

18. Sports Scholarship Scheme: Under this scheme, State level scholarship at the rate of Rs.450/- per month, National Level Scholarship of Rs.600/- per month and University/College level scholarship of Rs.750/- per month are given to sportspersons excelling at State, National and University/college levels.
