Rehabilitation:1. Relief and Rehabilitation of Repatriates from Sri Lanka:

Under the Indo-Sri Lanka Agreements, the persons of Indian origin in Sri Lanka granted Indian citizenship are to be repatriated to India and provided relief and rehabilitation assistance. The budget provision is for providing relief and rehabilitation assistance to these repatriates and also includes, inter-alia, assistance and loan to Repatriates Cooperative Finance Development Bank and loans and advances to State Governments and Union Territories involved in their resettlement. The major part of the provision is for providing relief assistance to refugees from Sri Lanka, who are staying in camps, as also for staff expenditure.

2. Relief and Rehabilitation of J&K Migrants: The funds are meant for grant of relief to Kashmiri migrants and Border migrants in J&K, reimbursement to Government of J&K for ex-gratia relief to next of kin (NOK) of civilians, Special Police Officers, Jammu & Kashmir Police personnel and Central Para-Military Force personnel killed in terrorist attacks/cross border firing. The fund is also utilized for Relief & Rehabilitation of Kashmiri migrants, militancy related widows and orphans in J&K, other relief measures and Surrender Policy, etc.

3. Repatriates from Other Countries: It covers expenditure on refugees from Tibet, former West and East Pakistan. The scheme is also for acquisition of land and distribution of title deeds for Displaced Persons from the former East Pakistan. It also includes provision for Repatriation of Indian prisoners from other countries.

4. Other Rehabilitation Programmes: It includes provision for relief and rehabilitation of persons affected by Indo-Pak conflict, 1971 and other social security and welfare measures. This also includes provision for the relief and rehabilitation of Reang refugees, victims of Bodo-Santhal Clashes and relief and rehabilitation assistance to North Eastern States of Tripura, Assam and Mizoram. Provisions for financial assistance to State Governments to meet expenditure on enhanced compensation to 1984 riot victims and for implementation of Assam Accord are also kept under this.

5. Pensions and Other Benefits to the Freedom Fighters: The Swatantrata Sainik Samman Pension Scheme, which was introduced in 1972, has been liberalized from time to time. Under this Scheme, pension is granted to ex-Andaman political prisoners, freedom fighters and their dependents. This includes provision for payment of pension to freedom fighters under Goa Liberation Movement and those who participated in the struggle for merger of erstwhile Nizam State of Hyderabad with Union of India.

6. Modernisation of Prison Administration: The provision is to address the deficiencies and construction of additional jails to reduce over-crowding, repair and renovation of existing jails, improvement in sanitation and water supply and living accommodation for prison staff. Under the new scheme introduced by Central Government on cost sharing basis in the ratio of 75:25 by Central Government and State Governments, grants-in-aid is proposed to be given in cash and kind to State Governments for a period of five years.

7. Subsidy for Helicopter Services in North Eastern Region: Includes provision for payment of subsidy for operating helicopter services in North Eastern Region.

9. Other Items: Includes provision of pensions in lieu of Jagirs, Schemes of National Integration, reimbursement of expenditure to Ministry of Defence for civic action programme in North-Eastern areas, National Identity Card Scheme, advertising and publicity in North-Eastern areas, etc. This also includes provision for revival of Ashok Paper Mills under the Assam Accord.

10. National Disaster Management: The provision is for expenditure on National Disaster Management Programmes (both natural disasters and man-made disasters), for providing grants-in-aid to various institutes/universities for bringing out literatures/organizing training programmes in tackling natural disaster and man-made disasters. It also covers assistance to capacity-building activities such as human resource development, research and consultancy services, studies, documentation and interaction with regional and international agencies in the field of disaster management. It includes provision for National Cyclone Risk Mitigation Project, USAID Disaster Management Support project, UNDP- Disaster Risk Management Programme, National Disaster Management Authority and National Institute of Disaster Management. It also includes provision for ex-gratia assistance to victims of disasters, relief for earthquake victims and preparation of Detailed Project Reports for Disaster Management.
